

EVERY HOUSE where love abides and friendship is a guest, is surely home, and home, sweet home; for there the heart can rest.—Henry Van Dyke.

LIFE IS rather a state of embryo, a preparation for life; a man is not completely born till he has passed through death.—Franklin.

Explorers Guests at Ambassador

Explorers Jack McNeil, Torrance Post 219-X and Gregg Hornaday, Lomita Post 569-X, this year's top junior leaders from the Harbor district, were among the J.L.T. Explorers of Philmont Training Troop 46, together with their Explorer advisors, as guests of the Sears Roebuck Foundation at a dinner in the Colonial Room at the Ambassador hotel June 15, at 6:30 p.m.

President of the Council, Charles R. Fleishman, greeted the honored guests and brief speeches were given by Arnold C. Sorenson, Scout executives of the Council, and Howard B. Barr, chairman of the training committee. Explorers McNeil and Hornaday attended an all-day organizational meeting at Camp Arthur Letta on May 28 and Jack McNeil was elected as patrol leader, one of the five important officers for Philmont Training Troop 46, leaving June 28.

One June 1, Explorers McNeil and Hornaday, their parents and unit leaders attended a parents' meeting at the Sears Roebuck Vermont store, where beautiful colored slides of Philmont Scout Ranch were shown, pertinent information given pertaining to the coming 36-day Philmont adventure, and refreshments served.

This J.L.T. program is sponsored by the Sears Roebuck Foundation, and this is the 4th year the program has been in effect.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Sierra of 19135 Inglewood Ave., Torrance, announce the birth of a son, Thomas Richard, weighing 8 pounds and 4 ounces. Born June 14.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Howard of 227295 Anchor, Wilmington, announce the birth of a son, Lance Talbot, weighing 7 pounds and 5 ounces. Born June 16, 1955.

New Medical Auxiliary Formed Here

The wives of a group of physicians and surgeons in the Bay Harbor area held an inaugural luncheon on Thursday, June 9, at the San Pedro Assistance League for the purpose of installing officers of the newly formed Auxiliary to the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Society.

Representing Torrance for the coming year are Mrs. M. A. Bauman as ways and means chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Chesley R. Houske. Other officers of the new group are Mmes. B. A. Plzey, president;

George Wall, vice-president; A. L. Rise, secretary; and Paul D. Yates, treasurer.

The organization is a branch of the California Osteopathic Auxiliary, and is comprised of a group from the area extending from Manhattan Beach to Long Beach, which formerly belonged to the Long Beach Osteopathic Society. The outgoing and incoming officers of the Long Beach branch were also present for the inaugural ceremonies.

Girl Scouts Hold Court Of Awards

Peck's Park was the scene on June 4 of the Court of Awards of Girl Scout Troop 416, sponsored by the St. Andrews Episcopal church. During the affair, which took place from 10 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., the girls had their mothers as guests at a luncheon they had planned and prepared, of chili beans, chesee bread and birthday cake. Linda Grubb, president of the group, welcomed the guests.

Leaders of the troop are Mesdames Walter Mathlin and Edward Dilkus. Mrs. Frank Hunter, a former Brownie leader, gave two five-year pins to Denise Hunter and Sharon Ricci whom she'd had as Brownies.

Mrs. Harold Woodman awarded Second Class pins to Roxanne Barnard, Dorothy Bull, Mary Ellen Jack, Sharon Miller, Joanne Portlock, Susan Sparks, Susan Stamps and Patty Woodman.

The president presented Proficiency Badges to the remainder of the troop, Edith Bischoff, Gracie Connett, Geraldine Dilkus, Carolea Mathlin, Lynn Barrett, Virginia Krauszer, Karen McTee, Paula Blankenship.

Carnival to Be Planned At Dinner

The Mothers' Council of the Lomita Presbyterian church, held a potluck dinner Saturday evening, June 11, at 6 p.m. in the social hall of the church located at 245th street and Woodward avenue in Lomita.

The main purpose of the dinner was to discuss and plan the Council-sponsored carnival set for Saturday, July 23, for the benefit of the church building fund.

The property for a new church has been purchased, and comprises two acres on Pennsylvania avenue and 239th street. A mortgage still exists on the land, and funds are being sought for this purpose.

The July 23 carnival will be held at the new church site, and the event will feature the Tinkertown circus.

Saturday's potluck is open to all interested, and child care will be provided during the business meeting.

P-TA Names New Chairmen At Seaside

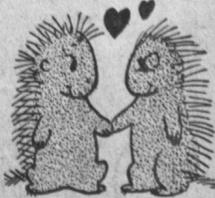

Mrs. David Daniels was ratified as second vice-president of the Seaside P-TA at the first regular executive board meeting of the unit held recently in the school auditorium. Mrs. Daniels will replace Mrs. A. Yackie, who has resigned.

Also appointed and ratified on the new board were Mrs. R. G. Parke, art chairman; Lloyd Jones, budget and finance; Rev. Miller, character and spiritual; and Mmes. C. S. Scioneaux, citizenship; W. Wudke, civic defense; W. L. Steinwachs, flower; G. W. Steele, founder's day; John Hamilton, health; and W. L. Tockey, hospitality.

Others were Mrs. J. H. Whyte, library; E. R. Walker, life membership; Mary Bristol, magazines; E. W. Bridgegman, music; C. N. Hirtle, newswetter; M. Callahan, assistant newswetter; B. F. Renz, publicity; J. D. Rolfe, publicity book; Nelson Goodyear, recreation; and John O'Rourke, secretary.

The new board discussed ways and means project for the fall, and tentatively set an October 29 date for a carnival.
